THE MEETING ROOM IS MULTIFUNCTIONAL

As meetings are a way of communicating information to other people, whiteboards are important tools for displaying multimedia, projections and interactive content. Presentations often depend on natural light sources and on the sustainability of the whiteboard. Dual functioning whiteboard surfaces increase interactivity in the meeting room, as they allow for projecting digital content as well as annotating documents from other participants. The i3 DUO SURFACE is the best solution for projecting, writing and erasing, especially in environments with excessive ambient light.
